Who can add new partners to their proposal?

Any consortium invited to the second stage can invite one additional co-applicant from the following list of funding agencies and ministries:

FFG, FIO, Innoviris, BNSF, RIF, TACR, MKM, ADEME, ANR, Rannis, MIMIT (formerly MiSE), LMT, MINBZK, UEFISCDI, SWEA, TÜBITAK, BF, SFOE, Innosuisse.

As long as:

- The new co-applicant was not declared ineligible in the first stage and was not already part of the initial consortium
- You, as main-applicant and your new co-applicant contact the funding agency and the funding agency agrees
- You inform the call secretariat (call2022@dutpartnership.eu) 14 days before the second stage closes and attach the approval (email, letter,..) from the funding agency
- The additional co-applicant may not effect a significant change to the proposal's original aims, impact and main tasks, but should enhance the original focus of the proposal

Where can we find additional information on the conditions and contacts of these funding agencies?

You may find all relevant information in Annex A in the call text.

Do you provide help in finding additional partners and projects one may join?

We strongly suggest to use the matchmaking platform provided by DUT

Can we add more than one co-applicant to our proposal?

No, but you may add co-operation partners (project partners that do not apply for funding).

Can we add additional co-operation partners?

Co-operation partners (project partners that do not apply for funding) may be added to your proposal as long as their addition does not effect a significant change to the proposal's original aims, impact and main tasks, but should enhance the original focus of the proposal. There is no limit on how many you may add.

How do I add the additional co-applicant?

You can add and invite the additional co-applicant directly in UdiManager, similar to the first stage.

Can I delete partners who were declared ineligible or opted to leave the project?

Yes, you may do so in UdiManager. Project partners once deleted cannot be added to your proposal in UdiManager.

How do I add the additional co-operation partners?

You can add the additional co-operation partners directly in UdiManager, similar to the first stage.
